Documentation Charges

Manual Booking Fee
Lufthansa Cargo charges a manual booking fee of EUR 24.00 (ex Germany and Eurozone) respectively 24 USD (ex AO, BR, IL, KE, MX, PA, TR, UY, US) or equivalent of 24 EUR in local currency per Air Waybill for all e-bookable general td.Pro, general td.Flash and general td.Zoom bookings, including certain Dangerous Goods- and Vulnerable products initially processed by the Lufthansa Cargo Customer Service or Service Center. For precise local currency amount please contact your local sales agent. Avoid extra charges and book eBookable Products online.

Manual Entry and Electronic Transmission of MAWB Data

1. Amendment of Air Waybill and completion of Charges Correction Advice (CCA)
   Lufthansa Cargo requires correctly issued AWB upon acceptance. In case Lufthansa Cargo discovers the AWB to be incorrect a correction process can be started by Lufthansa Cargo, provided this process is in accordance with local regulations and/or IATA regulations. A fee of EUR 50 per amendment /CCA will be invoiced, unless otherwise stated in 7 Special Country Information or in local agreements or regulations.

2. eAWB only and Non-eAWB Fee (BE)
   Lufthansa Cargo offers and requires eAWB for all products and to all destinations. With the goal of strengthening digital processes and reducing manual efforts, the eFreight related fees are simplified, resulting in one remaining Non-eAWB Fee (BE) for shipments without eAWB on eAWB-capable routes: EUR 50.00 /USD 50.00 or equivalent in local currency. This BE Non-eAWB Fee replaced BC AWB Data Processing / Manual Data Capture and BD Paper-to-eAWB Service Fee.

   Two scenarios will trigger the BE Non-eAWB Fee:
   a) Missing AWB data: If Lufthansa Cargo does not receive an electronic AWB data originally from the agent (via FWB or eAWB Data Capture tool accessible through Lufthansa Cargo eServices) or it has been rejected, a manual data capture is being done at goods acceptance and a Non-eAWB Fee is charged.
   b) Missing eAWB indication / provision of paper-AWB: If Lufthansa Cargo receives a shipment as non-eAWB from the agent and provided the shipment falls within the scope of the eAWB-only process, a fee-based “Paper-to-eAWB service” shall apply. The scope of the eAWB-only process is determined by the feasible trade lanes listed on the eFreight stations list, which is published on the Lufthansa Cargo website. For a shipment to count as an eAWB shipment, the forwarders must have signed the IATA Multilateral agreement, be activated for eAWB by Lufthansa Cargo and transmit eAWB special codes EAP or EAW via AWB data. For each non-eAWB shipment, such as a Paper AWB and / or no EAW or EAP transmitted shipment, a Non-eAWB Fee will be charged, whereby the paper AWB is converted into an eAWB pursuant to Art. 3.3.1 and 12.2(f) of the General Conditions of Carriage of Cargo of Lufthansa Cargo.

   Manual Entry and Electronic Transmission of HAWB Data
   Lufthansa Cargo needs HAWB data for all consolidated shipments worldwide to comply with national and international laws and regulations.
   Upon acceptance, Lufthansa Cargo requires the House Air Waybill (HAWB) to be correctly issued and transmitted through electronic data transmission using FHL messages, using either a third-party EDI provider or our eServices data capture tool (http://eservices.lufthansa-cargo.com/).
   In case of failed electronic HAWB transmission, customers must additionally provide the following documents along with the Master air waybill (MAWB). These documents must be accessible for Lufthansa Cargo (for instance, in a separate envelope ad-dressed to Lufthansa Cargo):
   a) HAWB manifest and/or a copy of the individual HAWBs
   b) HAWB manifest per pallet (if shipment consists of several pallets)

   In case of electronic House Manifest (eHM) shipments, no paper House Manifest must be provided by customers. Instead, all FHL data must be transmitted electronically to LH Cargo. The sum of all FHL messages for all HAWB belonging to one MAWB, which are electronically submitted to Lufthansa Cargo, constitutes the electronic House Manifest (eHM) / electronic consolidation manifest/list.

   Customers have to ensure that:
   - all consignments with at least one HAWB carry the remark “Consolidation as per attached manifest” or “Consolidation” on the MAWB under “Nature and Quantity of Goods.”
   - the “Consolidated Shipment” check box in the Basic Booking Information screen (BBI) is marked in eBooking all master air waybills, HAWBs and the HAWB manifest or FHL data contain the exact description of goods as well as the addresses of both shipper and consignee along with their names, street addresses, postal codes, cities and countries.

3. Document Pouch Fee for General Cargo (BP)
   Approximately two-thirds of all worldwide LH Cargo shipments are processed as EAP, meaning eAWB shipments with additional accompanying documents. In many cases – particularly for general cargo – transporting accompanying documents (EAP) is not necessary from a transportation or regulatory standpoint, as general cargo shipments can be flown completely paperless (eAWB with EAW).
   Lufthansa Cargo charges a Document Pouch Fee (BP) for General Cargo shipments with accompanying paper documents (EAP shipments): EUR 12.00 /USD 12.00 or equivalent in local currency. The "Document Pouch Fee" for general cargo shipments is generally applied to all paperless destinations. For further information, please contact your local sales agent.

For Dangerous Goods shipments that cannot be accepted the first time (not ready for carriage) and need to be checked again, a DGR Re-Check Fee applies. For radioactive shipments, an additional Radioactive Fee applies on top of the DGR Check Fee.
